Description Summary

Our credit seeking businesses mailing list is the perfect list for any marketer who is looking to target financially distressed, small medium and large business owners. These business owners, are currently struggling to meet their operational expenses and are in need of capital. The list consist of top level decision makers such as "Owners, President and CEO's of small to medium size companies who have indicated they are seeking some sort of business funding. Compiled from a number of proprietary sources including Small Business Loans sites, surveys and questioners then further enhanced with data elements from our national business database you are guaranteed accuracy. These business owners are highly receptive to small business loans and other business financing options.

How Our Data is Compiled

Our multi-sourced credit seeking business database is derived from a wide range of online sources including small business loans site. By aggregating data from a wide network of publishers we deliver an industry leading B2B marketing list. This database is collocated from multiple sources that offer both on online and offline access to credit seeking business owners.

Consider the Facts

- 2 out of 5 business loans are used as a means of debt consolidation
- 60% of business loans are used to expand a business. This could be anything from securing a larger location, restocking inventory, or increasing working capital
- Businesses that do not have enough capital to carry them through the first 6 months often fail within the first year
- Businesses are not only looking to banks for financial assistance; businesses are now looking for venture capitalists, angels, and borrowing from family and friends
